

All Wales Special Interest Group/Special Oral Health Care
Grwp Diddordeb Arbennig Cymru Gyfan – Gofal Iechyd
www.sigwales.org

Friday 27th September 2019

Metropole Hotel, Llandrindod Wells, Powys, LD1 5DY

Diabetes and Sepsis in Oral Health Care
9.00-9.45	Registration (Please be seated by 9.50am)
10-10.45	Update on diabetes in children Dr Rebekah Pryce Consultant Paediatrician, ABUHB
10.45- 11.10	The role of a diabetic nurse Chris Cottrell, Diabetic nurse, Swansea Bay
11.10-11.25	Comfort break
11.25-12.15	Update on Oral Medicine Helen Rogers, Consultant in Oral Medicine, Bristol
12.15-12.45	Periodontal disease and Diabetes Derek Hall, Consultant in Restorative Dentistry, Swansea Bay
12.45-13.00	Plenary and presentations
13.00-14.00	Lunch
14.00-14.30	6 Signs of Sepsis Terence Canning, Exec Director of UK Sepsis Trust Wales
14.30-14.45	Sepsis and Oral Health in South Wales Mick Allen, Consultant in Special Care Dentistry, ABUHB
14.45-15.15	Motivational interviewing and behaviour change Grace Kelly, Consultant in Special Care Dentistry, Cardiff
15.15-15.30	Diabetes and periodontal disease – role of Dental Hygienist Christine Thomas, Dental Hygienist, Dental Hospital, Cardiff
15.30-15.45	Oral Health and Type 2 Diabetes Programme Olivia Barrett, Dental Core Trainee
15.45-16.00	Case Studies Leah Henry and Zoe Greenwood Specialist Trainees in Special Care Dentistry, Wales
16.00	Close and tea

Learning Objectives

- Update on diabetes in children
- The role of a diabetic nurse
- Update on oral medicine linked to diabetes and other mucosal conditions
- Understand the link between diabetes and periodontal disease
- Six steps to sepsis – raising awareness of sepsis
- Report on research on sepsis and dental infection in South Wales
- Motivational interviewing for the dental team
- Role of dental hygienist for people with periodontal disease and diabetes
- Programme to improve awareness of the link with diabetes and periodontal disease
- Case studies