

All Wales Special Interest Group/Special Oral Health Care
Grwp Diddordeb Arbennig Cymru Gyfan – Gofal Iechyd
www.sigwales.org

Friday 27th September 2019
Metropole Hotel, Llandrindod Wells, Powys, LD1 5DY

Diabetes and Sepsis in Oral Health Care

10-10.45	Update on diabetes in children Dr Rebekah Pryce Consultant Paediatrician, ABUHB
10.45- 11.10	The role of a diabetic nurse Chris Cottrell, Diabetic nurse, Swansea Bay
11.10-11.25	Comfort break
11.25-12.15	Update on Oral Medicine Helen Rogers, Consultant in Oral Medicine, Bristol
12.15-12.45	Periodontal disease and Diabetes Derek Hall, Consultant in Restorative Dentistry, Swansea Bay
12.45-13.00	Plenary and presentations
13.00-14.00	Lunch
14.00-14.30	6 Signs of Sepsis Terrance Canning, Exec Director of UK Sepsis Trust Wales
14.30-14.45	Sepsis and Oral Health in South Wales Mick Allen, Consultant in Special Care Dentistry, ABUHB
14.45-15. 15	Motivational interviewing and behaviour change Grace Kelly, Consultant in Special Care Dentistry, Cardiff
15.15-15.30	Engaging the team in improving periodontal disease Christine Thomas, Dental Nurse, Dental Hospital, Cardiff
15.30-15.45	Oral Health and Type 2 Diabetes Programme Olivia Barrett, Dental Core Trainee
15.45-16.00	Case Study Specialist Trainee in Special Care Dentistry, Wales
16.00	Close and tea

Learning Objectives

- Update on diabetes in children
- The role of a diabetic nurse
- Update on oral medicine linked to diabetes and other mucosal conditions
- Understand the link between diabetes and periodontal disease
- Six steps to sepsis – raising awareness of sepsis
- Report on research on sepsis and dental infection in South Wales
- Motivational interviewing for the dental team
- How to support people with periodontal disease and diabetes
- Programme to improve awareness of the link with diabetes and periodontal disease
- Case study