

The URLs (website addresses) have all been checked. But there are occasional glitches when you click on a few of the sites. Typing or pasting the URL into the search bar should work. If that fails, just google the title of the resource. Some resources have been removed because they are no longer available. They are not listed in any particular order and most of the new resources such as POPPI, PANSI and DAFFODILCYMRU are at the end. Almost all the documents listed can be downloaded.
