

Study Day

Friday 9th October 2015

Media Resource Centre, Oxford Rd, Llandrindod Wells, Powys LD1 6AH

'Filling the Void' Oral Health Care for the Vulnerable Adult - Homelessness, Substance Misuse, Prisons & Secure Units
--

- 9.30 Coffee and Registration
- 10.00 'Update on oral care for people who are homeless'
Blanaid Daly, Academic lead in Special Care Dentistry, Kings College London
- 10.50 'Dental services for substance misusers in Swansea'
David Davies, Specialist in Special Care Dentistry, ABMU
- 11.20 Comfort Break
- 11.35 'Provision of Oral Health Care in Rampton High Secure Unit'
Heidi Nutall, Specialist in Special Care Dentistry, Derbyshire
- 12.20. 'Survey of the Dental Services for Prisons in Wales'
Mary Wilson, STr in Dental Public Health
- 12.45 Plenary session
- 1.00 LUNCH
- 2.00 'Provision of health Services for asylum seekers and refugees'
Jackie Williams, Health Visitor for Vulnerable Groups, North Wales
- 2.50 'Oral Health care for people who misuses substances'
Beverley Careless, Terrance Higgins Trust, Swansea
- 3.30 A patient's perspective
- 4.00 Close and tea

Learning outcomes for the dental team:

- To review the oral health care of people who are homeless
- To learn how to set up a dental service and provide dental care for people who are homeless
- To understand the issues that impact on oral health care for people in high secure units
- To learn about the survey outcomes regarding oral health care for people in prisons in Wales
- To understand the health issues for asylum seekers and refugees
- To look at the oral health care promotion and prevention for people who misuse substances
- To understand the patient perspective of having an infectious disease