

Metropole Hotel and Spa, Temple St, Llandrindod Wells LD1 5DY

New Trends, New Risks and Their Impact on Vulnerable Populations

9.00	Registration, Sponsors and Posters
9.30	Welcome
9.35	Turkey Teeth: What Price for the Perfect Smile? An ENT perspective. Mr Sam Fishpool, ENT Consultant, Cwm Taf Morgannwg UHB Aims: - To understand the ENT perspective on the management of sinogenic complications of cosmetic dentistry. Objectives: - A better understanding of endoscopic sinus surgery and its use in the management of sinogenic complications of cosmetic dentistry. - The ethical and NHS legal framework for treating complications of cosmetic surgery performed overseas. - GDC Development outcomes: B,C,D
10.25	Dental Tourism Prof Nick Claydon, Professor in Restorative Dentistry and Honorary Consultant in Periodontics at Cardiff University Aims: - Illustrate the causes and consequences of Dental Tourism. - Highlight management issues that arise from patients who undertake treatment outside the UK. Objectives: - Identify clinical problems surrounding dental tourism. - Learn how to manage patients and make appropriate referral - Develop insight into the consequences of dental tourism - GDC Development outcome: A,B,C,D
11.15	Independent Financial Support for the Dental Team (Sponsor) Chase de Vere Medical & Dental.
11.20	Break, Sponsors and Posters
12.00	Ketamine Bladder: Future Epidemic of the Young Generation Katie Gallagher, Advanced Nurse Practitioner, v-i-a charity Aims: - Raise awareness of ketamine bladder and encourage early detection. - Multidisciplinary intervention, informing healthcare policy and service design. Objectives: - Gain a knowledge and understanding of ketamine abuse. - Gain a knowledge and understanding about the complications of ketamine misuse. - How can we detect and intervene early before irreversible damage is done. - Moving forward: the future and what can we change in practice. - GDC Development outcomes: C

13.00	Kerr (sponsor) Mr Matthew Green
13.05	Sponsors, Posters and Lunch
14.15	Oral and Dental adverse effects of Novel Anti-Obesity Pharmacotherapies - Implications for Community Dental Practice Dr Jeeva Priya Rangasamy, Dental Office, Betsi Cadwaladr UHB Aims: - To summarise the emerging evidence on oral ,dental ,and periodontal complications associated with GLP-1 Agonists ,dual GIP/GLP-1 receptor agonists to highlight their relevance to everyday community dental care. Objectives: - Identify key oral complications linked to modern weight-loss injections. - Recognise drug-related changes that may mimic oral pathology or cause airway risk. - Manage dental risk proactively, including caries risk , xerostomia ,TSL and emergency preparedness. - GDC Development outcomes: A,C
14.45	Mental Health Crisis – Who You Gonna Call? Dr Rosie May-Bennett, specialty registrar, Special Care Dentistry, Plymouth Aimi Graham – Dental Nurse, Cwm Taf Morgannwg UHB Aims: - Understand the burden of mental health conditions in adolescents and how this may impact dental care. - Understand how a patient struggling with their mental health may present to us and know how to manage a mental health crisis in a dental environment. Objectives: - Learn about the prevalence of common mental health conditions in adolescents. - Develop an insight into the aetiology and impacts of common mental health conditions. - Gain an awareness of resources and support available for patients struggling with their mental health. - Understand how to recognise a mental health crisis and how to manage this using our flowchart. - GDC Development outcomes: A,B
15.15	Tobacco, Vapes and Nicotine Addiction Programme Team Public Health Wales
15.45	Roland Williams Job Shadowing Scheme Sophie Bryant , Specialist in SCD, Aneurin Bevan HB.
15.50	SIG Poster Prize Winners
16.00	Close